

Reading Interactions

Instructions: After pre-viewing the chapter, read sections and complete a variety of interactions with the reading material. This allows you to investigate and read more closely the details.

1. Read a chunk of the material.
2. Take notes/summarize the main point or idea.
3. Complete the following engaging situations as directed.

Interactions

1. Turn titles, headings, and subheadings into questions.
2. Create new titles, headings, and subheadings for each section.
3. Develop questions from reading, pictures, or data.
4. Prepare graph, table, chart from the reading.
5. Write a poem about a key idea, term, or important person.
6. Make inferences from the reading.
7. Provide new examples or make connections to another time or place.
8. Create illustrations, symbols, or drawings about the reading.
9. Evaluate a section in the reading.
10. Develop “what if” statements from the reading, pictures, or data.
11. Relate the text to your experience or to another example.
12. Compose metaphors or similes.
13. Create an analogy.
14. Make a chronological depiction of major events.
15. Create a bubble map or Venn diagram comparing and contrasting the similarities and differences of the topic.
16. Copy an important quote and make your interpretation.